FAQs

- Q. I am still looking for a partner, but I know that the tournament fills up quickly...what should I do?
- A. You are welcome to submit an entry. For the TBD partner information, please see the TBD directions above. You will be responsible for paying for the full team fees. Once you find a partner, send an email, copying your partner, to StrikingAgainstBreastCancer@gmail.com with the subject line "2026 SABC Tournament Partner Update". In the email, let us know your partner name, hometown, email address and phone. (For PBA/PWBA players, please list the same name, hometown and state/country as used when competing professionally.) Your partner will pay you for their portion of the team entry fee.
- Q. I have a partner change, what should I do?
- A. For a partner change, send an email, copying your previous partner and your new partner (please copy both), to StrikingAgainstBreastCancer@gmail.com with the subject line "2026 SABC Tournament Partner Change". In the email, let us know your new partner name, hometown, email address and phone. (For PBA/PWBA players, please list the same name, hometown and state/country as used when competing professionally.) If your previous partner paid for their own entry, please have your new partner send them their entry fee. Venmo, Zelle, etc. are wonderful tools to do this. We thank you for making this change.
- Q. My team needs to withdraw, what should we do?
- A. Please send an email, copying your partner, to StrikingAgainstBreastCancer@gmail.com with the subject line "2026 SABC Tournament Withdrawal". In the email, let us know how the entry fee(s) were paid (one person paid for the team or each paid their own portion), along with name(s) and address(es) so that we can send the refund check(s).
- Q. I have a question that has not been answered here, what should I do?
- A. Please send your question to StrikingAgainstBreastCancer@gmail.com. Someone from the SABC Team will respond to you as quickly as possible.

We appreciate your support!
